University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources

Making a Difference for California

Citrus Notes Volume 1, Issue 4 May 2018

Spring Citrus Meeting
Thursday, June 7, 2018
8:30 AM - Noon
Tulare County Agricultural Building
4437 S. Laspina St. Tulare, CA

8:30 - 9:00 A.M.	Registration
9:00 - 9:30	HLB/ACP update for California citrus . Dr. Greg W. Douhan, University of California, Cooperative Extension, Tulare, CA
9:30 - 10:15	Fruit Numbers, Fruit Size, Tree Density and Pruning in Navel Orange. Craig Kallsen, University of California Cooperative Extension, Bakersfield, CA
10:15 - 10:30	Break
10:30 – 11:15	Nematodes and Velum One as a Post Plant Nematicide. Dr. Jim Hruskoci, St. Technical Service Scientist, Southern SJV, Product Development North America, Crop Science
11:15 -12:00	Citrus Pathogens- Friends or Foes? Shih-Hua Tan & Tyler Dang, Ph.D. candidates, Department of Microbiology and Plant Pathology, University of California, Riverside, CA.
12:00-1:00	Lunch: Kindly provided by Sym-Agro Inc.  SymeAgro

CINNERATE

Continuing Education Credits Have Been Requested.